

Dill

Choose a sunny spot in the garden, and enrich the soil with a soil improver and liquid fertiliser.

As seedlings grow, thin to 20cm apart. Lightly mulch around the base of the plants.

Water regularly and feed weekly.

Snip to harvest, and remove any flower to prolong leafy growth.

Dill is a versatile herb which can be chopped and tossed into a potato and egg salad, or used to garnish fish and meat dishes.

ERINDALE COMMUNITY GARDEN